

Solution for 5.2 Whirling (Answer = AINULINDALE)

Fold the paper by joining the two sides of the missing square together. The n

take the hint from the title that you move spirally and outwards (suggested by the starting arrow in the centre). Start from I then go to L then U,V,A.

..

to obtain:

"Iluvatar sat and hearkened and for a great while it seemed good to him for in there were no flaws But as the theme progressed it came into the heart of Melkor to interweave matters his own imagining that were not in accord with theme of Iluvatar for he sought therein to increase the power and glory of the part assigned to himself To Melkor among the had been given the"

This is a (butchered) passage from "The Silmarillion" By JRR Tolkien. Looki ng

up the omitted words, they are "the music of the Aidur" which is "Ainulinda le"

in elfish.