

Hints for 1.3 Network Ten

- Somehow this reminds you of when you used to fold paper cranes back in primary school. You used to cut off their heads when you finished; you were quite the destructive child.
- You figure that you are meant to cut it all out and fold it together. But then what do you do with the dotted lines and numbers?
- Cut the black lines, fold at the colour boundaries, paste them all together, cut the dotted lines, and unfold.
